WHAT ELSE YOU SHOULD KNOW

- A link to another account or line of credit may be less expensive than an overdraft. A single larger overdraft will result in one fee, instead of multiple smaller overdrafts. Use our mobile, internet, and telephone banking services to track your balance. For financial education resources, please visit www.mymoney.gov.
- The $32 Premium Overdraft Service Fee that is charged if you overdraw your account is the same fee that is charged if an item is returned as unpaid. If multiple items overdraw your account on the same day, each item will be assessed an appropriate Premium Overdraft Service Fee or a Return Item Fee of $32. All fees and charges will be included as part of the Premium Overdraft Service limit amount. Your account may become overdrawn more than the Premium Overdraft Service limit amount because of a fee.
- For consumer accounts, there is a combined limit of 5 total Premium Overdraft Service Fees and Paid Non-Sufficient Funds Fees, up to $160 per day we can charge you for overdrawing your account. These limits do not apply to business accounts.
- Recipients of federal or state benefits payments who do not wish us to deduct the amount overdrawn and the Premium Overdraft Service Fee from funds that you deposit or that are deposited into your account may call us at 719.593.8600 or 800.223.1983 to discontinue Premium Overdraft Service.
- If an item is returned because the Available Balance (as defined below) in your account is not sufficient to cover the item and the item is presented for payment again, Air Academy Credit Union ("We") will charge a Return Item Fee each time we return the item because it exceeds the Available Balance in your account. Because we may charge a Return Item Fee each time an item is presented, we may charge you more than one fee for any given item as a result of a returned item and re-presentation of the item. When we charge a Return Item Fee, the charge reduces the Available Balance in your account and may put your account into (or further into) overdraft. If, on re-presentation of the item, the Available Balance in your account is sufficient to cover the item we may pay the item, and, if payment causes an overdraft, charge an Premium Overdraft Service Fee. We may use the terms "item" and "transaction" interchangeably.
- We generally post items as they are received in the following order: 1) ACH Credits, 2) ACH Debits, 3) Share Drafts; however, exceptions may occur. Additionally, Debit Card and ATM Transactions are processed when the transaction occurs and as a result may be posted before or after any of the numbered items listed depending on when the transaction was made. Holds on funds (described herein) and the order in which transactions are posted may impact the total amount of Premium Overdraft Service Fees or Return Item Fees assessed.
- Premium Overdraft Service is not a line of credit; it is a discretionary overdraft service that can be withdrawn at any time without prior notice.
- Depositor and each Authorized Signatory will continue to be liable, jointly and severally, for all overdraft and fee amounts, as described in the Agreements and Disclosures. The total (negative) balance, including all fees and charges, is due and payable upon demand.
- We may be obligated to pay some debit card transactions that are not authorized through the payment system but which we are required to pay due to the payment system rules, and as a result you may incur fees if such transactions overdraw your account. However, we will not authorize debit card or ATM transactions unless your account's Available Balance (including Overdraft Coverage Options) is sufficient to cover the transactions and any fee(s).
- Giving us your consent to pay everyday debit card and ATM overdrafts on your consumer account (Extended Coverage) may result in you incurring Premium Overdraft Service Fees for transactions that we would otherwise be required to pay without assessing an Premium Overdraft Service Fee. However, this would allow us to authorize transactions up to the amount of your Premium Overdraft Service limit. If you consent to Extended Coverage on your consumer account, it will remain on your account until it is otherwise withdrawn.

Understanding your Available Balance: Your account has two kinds of balances: the Actual Balance and the Available Balance.

- We authorize and pay transactions using the Available Balance.
- Your Actual Balance reflects the full amount of all deposits to your account as well as payment transactions that have been posted to your account. It does not reflect checks you have written and are still outstanding or transactions that have been authorized but are still pending.
- Your Available Balance is the amount available to you to use for purchases, withdrawals, or to cover transactions. The Available Balance is your Actual Balance, less any holds due to pending debit card transactions and holds on deposited funds.
- The balance used for authorizing checks, ACH items, and recurring debit card transactions is your Available Balance plus the amount of the Premium Overdraft Service limit and any available Overdraft Protection.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Standard Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection but does NOT include the Premium Overdraft Service limit.
- The balance used for authorizing ATM and everyday debit card transactions on accounts with Extended Coverage is your Available Balance plus any available Overdraft Protection and includes the Premium Overdraft Service limit.
- Because your Available Balance reflects pending transactions and debit holds, your balance may appear to cover a transaction but later upon settlement it may not be sufficient to cover such transaction. In such cases, the transaction may further overdraw your account and be subject to additional overdraft fees. You should assume that any item which would overdraw your account based on your Available Balance may create an overdraft. Note that we may place a hold on deposited funds in accordance with our Deposit Account Agreement and Disclosure, which will reduce the amount in your Available Balance.

- Please be aware that the Premium Overdraft Service amount is not included in your Available Balance provided through online banking, mobile banking or Air Academy Credit Union's ATMs.
- We will place a hold on your account for any authorized debit card transaction until the transaction settles (usually within two business days) or as permitted by payment system rules. In some cases, the hold may exceed the amount of the transaction. When the hold ends, the funds will be added to the Available Balance in your account. If your account is overdrawn after the held funds are added to the Available Balance and the transaction is posted to the Available Balance, an Premium Overdraft Service Fee may be assessed.
- Except as described herein, we will not pay items if the Available Balance in your account (including the Premium Overdraft Service limit, if applicable) is not sufficient to cover the item(s) and the amount of any fee(s).

Understanding Premium Overdraft Service Limits

- New consumer and business checking accounts will receive a $100 Introductory Premium Overdraft Service limit at account opening that will be increased to $1,000 after 30 days in good standing for consumer accounts or after 60 days in good standing for business accounts.
- Premium Overdraft Service may be reduced if you default on any loan or other obligation to us, your account becomes subject to any legal or administrative order or levy, or if you fail to maintain your account in good standing by not bringing your account to a positive balance within 32 days for a minimum of one business day. You must bring your account balance positive for at least one business day to have the full Premium Overdraft Service limit reinstated.
